

Richardson Police Department News Release

November 21, 2014

Improper Relationship Educator / Student, Dallas, TX

On 11/20/2014 a parent of a sixteen year old female student contacted the Richardson Police Department in reference to her daughter being sent unwanted texts and emails by Richardson High School teacher James Quigley. Detectives interviewed the 16 year old and learned between May 1, 2014 and June 30, 2014 Quigley and the 16 year old had engaged in sexual contact. Detectives obtained an arrest warrant and arrested Quigley for Improper Relationship Educator/Student, which is a F/2. Quigley was additionally charged with Sexual Assault which is also a F/2. The investigation is on-going. The Richardson Police Department is encouraging any additional witnesses to come forward and contact the Richardson Police at 972-744-4800.
